

SORBONNE LLM BUSINESS LAW FOR FOREIGN LAWYERS

Diplôme d'université

"The Sorbonne Law School is proud to offer to non-French speaking lawyers the opportunity to study French and European business law in a prestigious setting and in an internationally renowned law faculty.

Infos pratiques

Composante : EDS - Dépt. droit international, européen et comparé

Durée : 1 an

Campus : Campus Port-Royal - centre Lourcine

Présentation

Objectifs

This unique experience will allow candidates to learn more about the legal reasoning specific to civil law countries. The courses are taught in English to small groups by academics recognized as leading French specialists in their respective fields.

The LLM is also a unique window to learn French. In a nutshell, this "Sorbonne LLM Business Law for Foreign Lawyers" program is a rare and Parisian experience for all lawyers around the world wishing to become familiar with France, French and European law. "

Admission

Conditions d'admission

Participants should be proficient in written and spoken English, but no English test is required. No minimum TOEFL or IELTS score required.

Please note that in order to be eligible to this LLM program, students need to justify of four years of LAW studying (Master 1 or equivalent).

Modalités d'inscription

Each candidate will be selected after an interview in English (hold online), scheduled shortly after reception of the application (early June). Candidates will be notified by the Committee on Admissions in less than 3 weeks after the interview.

ADMISSIONS ARE OPEN FROM : February 02th, 2024 to April 02th, 2024, via :

<https://ecandidat.univ-paris1.fr>

Public cible

This LL.M. (Magister Legum) is a University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne post-graduate degree open to young lawyers, jurists and recent law graduates, fluent in English and from non-French jurisdictions. It is tailored for legal practitioners with different legal and cultural backgrounds.

Tarifs

The tuition fees are 7 500 euros.

The tuition fees cover enrolment and classes, it does not cover accomodation or general expenses.

Pré-requis recommandés

In order to be eligible to this LLM program, students need to justify of four years of LAW studying (Master 1 or equivalent).

Et après

Passerelles et réorientation

The Sorbonne LLM Business Law Program also allows students to plan an internship in Paris and to prepare for work experience as legal advisors to private European businesses, business-oriented NGOs and other public entities.

Internships are not required but optionnal and can not be longer than 3 months.

Programme

Organisation

The teaching consists of several fundamental courses taught by University professors and practicing lawyers in small groups ideal to trigger discussion and participation. In addition, a language course will be available to discover or improve the use of French as a working language.

During this program, a study trip of 24 hours is organised to the European Court of Human Rights (Strasbourg), enabling students to attend a hearing validated by the members of the ECHR.

Sorbonne LLM Business Law for Foreign Lawyers

semestre 1

UE1 Introduction to french & european law	15 crédits
Introduction to french business law	5 crédits	20h
Introduction to french & european judicial system & proceeding	5 crédits	20h
Introduction to french public economic law	5 crédits	20h
UE2 Basics of french & european business law	10 crédits
Corporate law	5 crédits	20h
Private & Public contract law	5 crédits	20h
UE3 Learning the french language	5 crédits

semestre 2

UE1 Learning the french language
FLE	5 crédits	60h
UE2 Transnational Business Law Issues
Conférences thématiques des professeurs invités	5 crédits	30h
Competition law	5 crédits	20h
Financial markets law	5 crédits	20h
International Contracts		33h
Introduction to european union law	5 crédits	20h